WATER AND POWER COMMUNITY CREDIT UNION APPOINTS NEW MONTEBELLO BRANCH MANAGER AND ASST. BRANCH MANAGER

LOS ANGELES (January 14, 2008) –Water and Power Community Credit Union (WPCCU) has named Ricardo Mejia as branch manager for the Montebello branch. Mejia, an employee of the credit union for seven years, formerly served as assistant branch manager and has been with the Montebello branch since it opened in 2002. In addition, David Monarrez, a three-year employee of the credit union, has been promoted to Assistant Branch Manager for the Montebello branch.

“Ricardo is an asset to the credit union, and has made significant contributions to the success of the Montebello branch,” says Robert Mims, former Montebello branch manager, and Director of Sales for all six branches. “We are proud to recognize both Ricardo and David for their work at the credit union with these appointments.”

Since opening, the Montebello branch has funded more than $35 million in auto loans, primarily to low-income, first time borrowers. The branch has distinguished itself by reaching out to the local Hispanic community with great savings rates, financial education and affordable funding.

About Water & Power Community Credit Union

Founded in 1936, Water and Power Community Credit Union (WPCCU) is a full-service financial cooperative celebrating 72 years of service. The credit union has more than $450 million in assets from its more than 48,000 members. From its six branches located in Los Angeles downtown, the San Fernando Valley, San Gabriel Valley and Westside, WPCCU and its partners offer members a complete array of products and services, including free checking; savings accounts; savings certificates; consumer and mortgage loans; as well as 24-hour, seven-day account access through the Internet and by phone. Under its California State Charter, WPCCU members come from the employee and retiree associations of the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power, 60 other sponsor organizations, and people who live, work, attend college, or worship in the greater Los Angeles area.
